Brandy Carvalho

Brandy Carvalho is the Development and Sustainability Manager for White Oak Conservation.

She started working at White Oak in 2007, after graduating from UF with a degree in Public Relations/Wildlife, Ecology and Conservation. During a brief hiatus from White Oak, she worked at the Museum of Science & History in Jacksonville, and as the Executive Director of the Nassau Humane Society, while earning a Masters of Public Administration. Upon returning to White Oak in 2013, she earned a second Masters Degree in Natural Resources.

Carvalho sits on several local boards, including Keep Nassau Beautiful, Baptist Medical Center Nassau and Nassau Education Foundation. Most importantly, she has 3 pretty awesome cats, which you will undoubtedly hear about sooner than later.
