

Bio

Kathy Russell

8/1/2022

Kathy Russell has been the Egans Creek Greenway Manager since late 2005. During the previous 17 years she taught Marine and Environmental Science at Fernandina Beach High School. Prior to that she spent several years working at the Jacksonville Zoo as an animal keeper and veterinary assistant and then at SeaWorld in Orlando as an aviculturist. She holds a bachelor's degree in zoology, teaches scuba diving, is a certified interpretive guide, has completed the Florida Master Naturalist Program, sits on the Board of Wild Amelia and is an active member of the Northeast Florida Invasives Council.