

Privacy Policy

Effective Date: March 4, 2025

Keep Nassau Beautiful values your privacy. This Privacy Policy explains how we collect, use, and protect your personal information when you interact with our website, services, and events.

We may collect the following types of information:

- Personal Information: Name, email address, phone number, and mailing address when you subscribe to our newsletter, sign up for events, or make a donation.
- Non-Personal Information: IP addresses, browser type, and website usage data collected through cookies and similar technologies.

We use your information to:

- Communicate with you about events, volunteer opportunities, and organizational updates.
- Process donations and maintain records of contributions.
- Improve our website and outreach efforts.
- Comply with legal obligations and ensure security.

We do not sell or rent your personal information. We may share information with:

- Service providers assisting with operations (e.g., payment processors, email platforms).
- Law enforcement or legal authorities if required by law.

We take reasonable measures to protect your personal information from unauthorized access, disclosure, or misuse. However, no method of transmission over the internet is 100% secure.

You may opt out of marketing communications at any time by following the unsubscribe link in emails. You can also adjust your browser settings to refuse cookies.

Our website may contain links to third-party sites. We are not responsible for their privacy practices and encourage you to review their policies.

We may update this Privacy Policy periodically. Changes will be posted with a revised effective date.
